

The Amish Banker?

By Rod Fraser

I like to carve lil' guys not more than 6 inches tall.
I expend lots of effort; I give them my all.

I'm happy to show them; to see what you'll say.
Each one was carved in less than a day.

The tall guy is imposing; but he's skinny and lean.
The lil' guy is charming and he doesn't look mean.

The one I like best is the guy with the tie.
He may be Amish; he's that kind of guy.

An Amish banker perhaps; I'd like to meet him alone.
To ask for some money; for I sure need a loan.
